

You Will Need an Oil Stove

When warm days and the kitchen fire make cooking a burden—then is the time to try a New Perfection Wick Blue Flame Oil Cook-Stove. Marvelous how this stove does away with kitchen discomforts—how cool it keeps the room in comparison with conditions when the coal fire was burning. The is the only oil stove built with a CABINET TOP for holding plates and keeping food hot after cooking. Also has useful drop shelves on which to stand the coffee pot or teapot after removing from burner. Fitted with two nickel-plated racks for towels. A marvel of comfort, simplicity and convenience. Made in three sizes—with or without Cabinet Top. If not with your dealer, write our nearest agency.

The Rayo Lamp Just such a lamp as every one wants—hand-some enough for the parlor; strong enough for the kitchen, camp or cottage; bright enough for every occasion. If not with your dealer, write our nearest agency.

A Queer Chinese Notion.
One of the beliefs which the Chinese are slowly unlearning is that foreigners use the eyes and hearts of Chinese men in compounding rare and costly drugs which are valuable aids in magic. Medicine and magic have for ages gone hand in hand in China, just as they once did in Europe. Ignorant Chinese men therefore readily believe such tales. The use of eyes of Chinese by foreigners in metallurgy is described in a work called "A Deathblow to Corrupt Practices," published in 1870. According to this, when white Christians had charge of a funeral they drove all the relatives and friends from the house. Both eyeballs were then removed from the corpse, the eyelids being filled with plaster. This was called "sealing the eyes for the western journey." By compounding these eyes with a hundred pounds of Chinese lead, this veracious chronicle continues, eight pounds of silver could be extracted from it. The sight organs of any other people were useless for this purpose.

Marine Rubber Chewers.
The sailor, taking a fine, new rubber band from the stationery display, began to chew it with vigorous enjoyment. "What are you up to there?" snarled the druggist. "Just rubber chewing," said the sailor. "It's a habit with all us navy fellows. Keeps off gun headshots." "Of course you, a landlubber, don't know nothing about it. But let me tell you, mate, when a sixteen inch gun goes off aboard ship the far shatters your winders, splits planks and brings your lower teeth up against your upper teeth like a straight left from old John L." "The result is a gun headache—such a headache! But if you chew rubber in firing time it eases off the shock and you don't suffer none. I been chewing it steady ever since Manila Bay." "Rubber chewing—what a nasty habit!" said the druggist. "That's the worst," was the sailor's reply.—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Close Quarters For Washington.
At the time, now some years ago, when subscriptions were being solicited for the erection of a statue in New York city to President Washington a gentleman called to secure a contribution from an old resident who, although wealthy, was a little "near." On learning the object of the visit the rich man exclaimed: "Washington! Washington! Why, Washington does not need a statue! I keep him enshrined in my heart!" In vain were the visitor's solicitations, and he was naturally indignant at the parsimony of the millionaire. "Well, Mr. R., he remarked quietly as he rose to leave, 'all I can say is that if the Father of His Country is in the position in which you describe him he is in a tight place!'"

The Title "King."
The sovereign title of king has generally been supposed to be derived from the old British word "gynning," signifying "vice." But the Hebrew term "melech" is doubtless the root of all the present titles denoting kingly power, including the Punic "resch," the Scythian "roik," the Latin "rex," the Spanish "rey" and the French "roi." The German nations styled their monarchs according to their different dialects—"konig," "kuning," "konig," "king."

Time's Changes.
The captain was receiving the new middy. "Well, boy, the old story, I suppose—fool of the family sent to sea?" "Oh, no, sir," piped the boy, "that's all altered since your day."—London News.

Not Misplaced.
Hotel Clerk—I found the "Not to Be Used Except In Case of Fire" placard those college boys stole out of the corridor. Manager—Where? Clerk—They nailed it up over the coal bin.—Boston Transcript.

Gritty.
"Fifty miles an hour! Are you brave?" She (swallowing another pint of dust)—Yes, dear; I'm full of grit.—Chicago News.

A Deserter.
Hewitt—Green has been arrested for being a deserter. Jewett—Wife or army?—New York Press.

They conquer who believe they can.—Vergil.

For Constipation.
Mr. L. H. Farham, a prominent druggist of Spring Lake, says: "Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are certainly the best thing on the market for constipation." Give these tablets a trial. You are certain to find them agreeable and pleasant in effect. Price 25 cents. Samples free. For sale by W. F. Creighton and Co. and Richard Gibson.
